

PRE-HOSPITAL OBSTETIC EMERGENCY TRAINING 2

Course aims to teach the practical procedures necessary to save the mother and fetus in life threatening circumstances before admission to hospital.

This pre-hospital obstetric emergency training program is for: paramedics, doctors and nurses.

The course objectives include:

- structured approach to obstetric emergencies,
- resuscitation skills,
- ante-partum haemorrhage,
- abruption,
- placenta praevia & uterine rupture,
- maternal cardiac arrest,
- newborn resuscitation.

Course structure

The course is run over one day.

Price: 150,00 EUR.

The course program consists of lectures, workshops, skill stations and teaching simulations.